FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:
Unfortunately, I (Fr. Ken) have torn tendons in my shoulder that require surgery. There was no incident that I can recall. The surgeon says probably just wear and tear over the years and age. He said it was common among folks my age. I am scheduled to have outpatient surgery January 7th. The surgeon said my arm will be immobilized in a sling for 6 weeks and rather limited celebrating sacraments. We are fortunate to have a recently retired pastor, Fr. Mark Miller, C.P.P.S. from the Kansas City Province, who is able to serve the Celina Cluster in my absence. He will be staying with us January 7th to February 19th. Fr. Mark originally hails from Trinity, IN, just across the state line. I am hopeful that after a few weeks I will be able to resume administrative duties on a limited basis. I welcome your prayers.
Blessings and thanks, Fr. Ken

Christmas decorations will be taken down after mass Sunday, Jan 10th (the Baptism of the Lord). Those able to help are welcome. All poinsettias will be available for the taking. There is plastic covers in the office to protect the blooms from the weather. We are eternally grateful for all your help. Thank you!
CCD T-shirt Fundraiser - those who placed orders, shirts are available for pick up in the lobby.
If you haven't picked up a book "I Heard God Laugh" by Matthew Kelly there are still books available in the lobby.
