

As we approach Advent, a time to prepare our hearts for the coming of our Savior Jesus Christ at Christmas, what better way to prepare than to join in the special graces received in the Sacrament of Reconciliation? While we prepare to celebrate Christmas by decorating, buying gifts, and gathering with Family and Friends over food and drinks, let's remember to prepare our hearts and souls by going to reconciliation and receive the gift of God's mercy. Come with your families and share this special Sacrament together.
