BAPTISMS

Presenting a child for Baptism is a serious obligation and requires a faith commitment on the part of the parents and godparents. This commitment is exemplified by being a practicing, active Catholic. Parents are obligated to attend a preparation session before a child's baptism if they have not attended one in the last five years. Please call your parish office to register.

WEDDINGS

Please phone your parish office to set-up an appointment with a priest, in order to begin the sacramental preparation. Only after this initial meeting and assessment can a date be set for the wedding. The process requires at least 6 months.

We Are Called to Serve

Volunteers are Needed on Holy Thursday

Volunteers needed for the Holy Thursday foot washing ritual. This ancient ritual began at the Last Supper when Jesus showed his disciples how they were called to serve one another. The ritual is still used throughout our Christian churches to remind us of our call to serve one another. It is with hope that this foot washing ritual will be a time of grace that renews our own Christian commitment and encourages others in their lives of service. If you are willing to volunteer please reach out to one of the parish offices.

IC PTO - Volunteers Needed

IC PTO is asking for volunteers for pizza, burrito and sub production days! Help is needed Friday, March 22nd, beginning after Mass at 10am. Seated positions available. Lunch provided.

Impact

BRING FAITH TO LIFE. FIND LIFE IN FAITH.

Impact this month

Use the metaphor of darkness and light as you prayerfully reflect each day:

What darkness has been thrust upon you, now or in the past?

What darkness is of your own making?

How will you come into the light of Christ through prayer, Mass, the sacrament of penance, fasting, and giving of yourself or your resources for others?

How will you follow Jesus' model of sacrifice and love?

See the light. Share the light.

At times, we choose to hide

None of us likes to admit it, but sometimes, we hide from the light of God's love. We may tell ourselves that we want to grow closer to God, yet our attitudes, actions, and inactions do not bear out this desire. We fail to live as we know we ought and take little or no time for prayer, Sunday Mass, or the sacrament of Reconciliation. We keep God at a distance, perhaps wondering if God's love truly is real or if we are really lovable. We choose to remain in the shadows and hide from the light of God's face.

See the light

As we continue through this season of Lent, we are invited to see in Christ the light of God's love and mercy. Lent is about making an intentional decision to follow Jesus more closely, to turn away from the darkness - that which is thrust upon us and that which is of our own making - and trust in God's incredible eternal light.

Jesus shows us the way

Throughout this month, especially during Holy Week, we come face-to-face with the full extent of God's love, the love in which we are created, and to which we are called. Jesus shows us that this light pierces every darkness. Not only did Jesus sacrifice himself, enduring suffering and death for us, he helps us understand that by seeking and living in the light, we will know God's love more powerfully than our human minds and hearts can fathom.

Share the light

In coming to see and know Christ's light more deeply, we are called to share the light as good stewards of God's varied grace. We do this by giving of ourselves and our resources as a reflection of the self-giving love of God, poured out and shared through Christ's passion, death, and resurrection. This is the purpose and meaning of our lives as Christian disciples. It is time to see and share the light of Christ's love.

Jesus is the supreme teacher of Christian stewardship, as he is of every other aspect of Christian life; and in Jesus' teaching and life self-emptying is fundamental... Refracted through the prisms of countless individual vocations, this way of life embodies and expresses the one mission of Christ: to do God's will, to proclaim the Good News of salvation, to heal the afflicted, to care for one's sisters and brothers, to give life - life to the full- as Jesus did. (SDR 19, 14)

"Amen, amen I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit." (Jn 12:20-33)

The foot of the cross

Walk with Jesus in a special way this Lent as he teaches and heals, forgives and loves. Place yourself alongside Jesus as he washes the feet of the disciples and prays that the cup of suffering might pass from him. Hear him say to the Father, "not my will but yours be done," and pause to wonder what great love would lead him to give so completely, to sacrifice his very self. See the look of love on his face as he entrusts Mary to the disciple he loved, and stay with him as he suffers and dies on the cross. And as you reflect and pray, peer into your heart and life and understand again, or perhaps for the first time, that Jesus died for each of us and for all.

Jesus wants us to come to him with our suffering, trials, confusion, doubts, and longing, to bring these things to the foot of the cross, where he looks at us with love and takes these difficult things to himself and transforms them. There is nothing so small or so great that it is beyond the love of God.

At the foot of the cross, we more fully understand that sacrifice is not as much about giving up as it is in giving for. On the cross, Jesus gave his life so that we might know God's redeeming love. At the foot of the cross, we take to heart the call to respond to this great love by loving in return, by "giving without counting the cost," just as Jesus did. Jesus did not hold back, and neither should we.

What do you bring to the foot of the cross? What are you called to sacrifice, and for whom? How might your giving transform your life and share God's love with others?

Giving ourselves away

"There the cross is found, because the cross is our desire to give ourselves away. It is our hunger to genuinely hand ourselves over, to give ourselves to others, because it is in doing so that we are most who we are. If you hold onto your life, you will not have life, but if you give it away, you cannot exhaust life. It becomes everlasting life. You become absolutely you.

And who, finally, are you? You are the image and likeness of God. If God is pure self-gift, then self-gift is the image in which we are made, the blueprint on which we are built. Therefore, to give ourselves away is what we most deeply desire." – Fr. Michael Himes, Doing the Truth in Love

Holy Rosary School 8th Grade Spotlight ~ Ruth Bambauer

14-year-old Nora Fischbach is the oldest child of Andrew and Laura Fischbach. Her siblings are AJ, who is 10, and Vera, who is 7. Nora is involved in swim and soccer, and plans to be on both teams next year as a freshman at Memorial High School. Nora has enjoyed being at Holy Rosary with her close knit class, more one-on-one attention, and how much she has grown in her faith. Nora mentioned that it is sometimes very hard to just sit down and have a conversation with God, but she has been doing it a lot more! Part of that is Mrs. Sindelar, who is Nora's staff buddy and has been such a good role model for her in growing closer to God. "Our hearts are restless until we rest in You" is a St. Augustine quote that Nora lives by. Two of Nora's favorite saints are St. Philomena and St. Imelda Lambertini, who were both very young and close to their faith.

Spaghetti is her favorite meal that her mom makes, and while she couldn't really name a food in the cafeteria, she most generally gets the big salad option. Her favorite subjects? Math and Science. This will serve her well as she hopes to go into the medical field someday. She is headed to district science fair with her project on acetaminophen. Her favorite sport is swimming; her favorite animal is the giraffe. Nora is a volunteer through and through: main office recycler, cafeteria volunteer, lector, Mass server, and Auglaize County Council on Aging lunch server with her classmates.

OLOG Annual Church Spring Cleaning

Our Lady of Guadalupe annual spring church cleaning will be on March 12, 2024, starting at 6:00. All are invited to help out. Please bring along a bucket and rags.

IC Endowment Fund

The Endowment Fund received $150.00 in memory of Edna Hoying, $65.00 in memory of Elmer Kuess, and $1,545.00 in memory of Robert Wade. Thank you for your generosity

IC Altar Society News & Information

$505 was donated from the IC Altar Rosary Society for the refinishing of the tabernacle, chalice, paten and ciboria. This is just one of the many things that this group of ladies do for the church. Through the $5 membership dues, the Bake-less Bake Sale and the dessert bar at the K of C Fish Frys, these ladies are committed to work with the church to purchase items that our church is in need of. All ladies of the parish are members and encouraged to come to their monthly meetings that consist of a short meeting followed by fellowship. It is a perfect way to meet and get to know other ladies of the parish. If you are not able to attend, contact Lisa at lschott1@roadrunner.com to be put on the email list so that you know what this wonderful group is all about.

 Our next meeting will be March 18, Monday following Stations of the Cross and Mass. Approximately 7:45 pm. If you've never been to a meeting come and join us!

 We will be hosting the dessert bar for the March 22nd and 29th K of C fish fry. We will be accepting any delicious dessert you can make.

* March 22, Volunteers at IC School for the PTO food sale (yes, they have sit down jobs)
