GOSPEL MEDITATION

DEEPEN YOUR UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Recently I was with my little dog Libby at a retreat center in the Arizona desert. I sat in a chair near a ravine filled with shrubs. Unbeknownst to me, Libby wandered down there and disappeared. Suddenly an animal's wild shriek erupted from the area. Without thinking, I bolted down into the ravine fully expecting to see coyotes, javelinas, or rattlesnakes. I didn't care. I desperately wanted to get Libby out of there, without any self-regard. Before I could face whatever danger lay hidden, my dog blissfully trotted out from an entirely different area, utterly unaware that I had (quite heroically) just placed my life on the line.

When the adrenaline wore off, I thought to myself: how far would I have been willing to go to save her? I don't know. But I do know, if I had literally died, my friends and family would have certainly thought me insane for dying for a dog. No offense, Libby.

How passionately Jesus wants us to know him and his willingness to die for us! This week he says, "I know my own and my own know me," and "I lay down my life for the sheep." Here we encounter an insanely excessive love for us. Christianity is a relationship and not simply a religion or ethical code. In Jesus, God rescues and saves us. He laid down his life for you and me — and he has taken it up again. So often we are like Libby — blissfully ignorant of the reality of both our spiritual danger and his saving love. This Easter season, the risen Jesus calls us to be more conscious than ever before about his love. He never ceases to lay down his life for us.

— Father John Muir

Parents are obligated to attend a preparation session before a child's baptism if they have not attended one in the last five years. Please call your parish office to register.

WEDDINGS

Please phone your parish office to set-up an appointment with a priest, in order to begin the sacramental preparation. Only after this initial meeting and assessment can a date be set for the wedding. The process requires at least 6 months.

MARRIAGE ANNULMENTS

ARCHDIOCESE OF CINCINNATI

As of September 14, 2015, there are no fees for marriage cases (Annulments) in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. A declaration of nullity is a formal decision by a Catholic Church Tribunal that a civilly legal marriage between a man and a woman lacked something essential from the moment of consent which prevented this from being a union binding for life according to Catholic Church law. If you are in need of an annulment or want more information, please call your parish office or the Tribunal Office in Cincinnati, at (513) 421-3131 ex 1219 or 1226.

RECOGNIZE GOD

IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

THE GOOD SHEPERD AND THE WOLF

I remember very clearly the first movie I watched during my pregnancy with my eldest child. In this film, there is a scene where a young boy is kidnapped and shoved into the back of a van guarded by vicious dogs. His mother persists in trying to free him, even as the dogs snap at her. Their bared teeth and full-throated snarls don’t slow her efforts in the slightest.

It wasn’t a great movie or even a particularly great scene, but I’ll never forget this scene. I’ll never forget those dogs.

I had just learned that I was a mother a few days ago. The life growing deep within seemed to me as frail as a whispered secret, but I loved it powerfully. I worried constantly if the baby was safe and healthy. I agonized over signs — real or imagined — that could tell me if the poppy seed-sized child was thriving or failing.

I understood, for the first time in my life, why a woman would charge a pack of attack dogs without hesitation — not because she should, but because she has to.

She could choose not to fight, certainly. She could walk away. But why would she? A future without her son is so much more painful than any physical wound. She may fear for her life, but she fears a life without her child so much more.

The Good Shepherd discourse reveals to us the motivation behind God’s actions throughout all of salvation history. From Adam to Noah to Abraham, all the way down to the time of the Messiah and beyond, He keeps trying to get us back. He keeps braving the attack dogs, time after time. He never stops. He never grows weary. And it baffles us: what’s in it for Him? we wonder, because we are quicker to give up on ourselves than He is. Why does He keep trying?

He could choose not to fight, sure. But why would He? He doesn’t want a future without us.

“I will lay down my life for the sheep.” — John 10:11

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

CONFIDENCE IN PRINCES

Have you ever confided your problems to a friend, only to get the answer, “have you prayed about it as much as you’ve talked about it?”

Like all good advice, it can really irritate the recipient at first. Here I am, vulnerable and wounded, unloading my problems, and this joker tries to load them right back up and ship them off to someone with a higher pay grade.

But again, like all good and irritating advice, it rings true if you sit and think about it.

Sure, venting is helpful. We all need that friend or family member who can listen to our problems. But if we ever start to think that person can solve them, it’s a good sign that we’re losing perspective.

Are you looking to the world for an answer? Are you looking in the mirror, expecting to find a solution to your problems? Are you expecting happiness, peace, contentment or justice to come from any place other than God?

“It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes,” the Psalms tell us. Well, I’ve never put much confidence in princes. But when it comes to problems, I often find myself telling God to take a step back — “I’ve got this.”

It’s tough to pray about any problem as much as you talk about it. We want so badly to tackle the issue ourselves. But I’ll let you in on a secret: it doesn’t matter what the question is, we don’t have the answer. Take it to the One who does.

HOLY ROSARY SCHOOL

8th GRADE SPOTLIGHT

Ryder Sullivan is the end of an era.

The baby of five boys, son of Angie and Joe Sullivan, has four brothers: Tyler, Jordan, Cory, and Brayden. When asked about being an uncle, Ryder's face lit up as he is uncle to Ivy Grace, finally a sweet little girl for this family of boys!

Ryder loves sports. He is a fullback and a linebacker for the 8th grade team, and this spring play first base and sometimes right field for the 8th grade baseball field. Ryder appreciates Coach Bo who always takes the time to talk to him in the weight room. In addition to sports, Ryder volunteers his time at HR in a variety of ways. He is Mrs. Krugh's recycler, a cafeteria server, and a rock star at the Auglaize County Council on Aging. Mr. Larkin is his staff buddy, and Ryder is Leo's first grade buddy.

Dad's the cook at the Sullivan house, with chicken chunks and fries among his youngest son's favorites. He also likes pizza in the cafeteria. He certainly loves his Confirmation saint, St. Michael, and he prays the Angel of God often. Math and Mr. Kill go hand in hand as Ryder's favorite subject and teacher. While Ryder is looking forward to seeing most of the people he hangs out with once he starts his freshman year, he knows he might not have classes with him. That's what he likes about Holy Rosary: all of his people are in class together.

Ryder quietly goes about doing what needs to be done. He just kind of does whatever a person asks him to do. In a world that's pretty wild and boisterous, Ryder is a gentleman. We are so going to miss this whole family, especially their baby! Good luck and many prayers, Ryder, as you finish up these last two months at HRS!

MOTHER'S DAY GIFTS!

SCRIP GIFT CARDS - IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

We have many gift cards available to give or use for your mother on Mother's Day! Plan to take Mom out for a special dinner and use our gift cards from many local and Lima restaurants, such as Anchor Restaurant, Arby's, Beer Barrel, Bella's, Bob Evans, Buffalo Wild Wings, C-Town Wings, Chipotle, CJ's Highmarks/JT's Bar and Grille, Cracker Barrel, Dairy Queen, Dominos, Happy Daz, Hot Head Burrito, McDonalds, Olive Garden, Outback, Panera Bread, Pizza Hut, Pullman Bay, Shandy's, Starbucks, Subway, Taco Bell, Texas Roadhouse, or Wendy's. How about a gift card to Bath & Body Works to give to Mom, or to use to buy her favorite scent. Does Mom like to read? You can get Amazon cards to buy a book or use to download a book on her tablet. Does Mom like coffee? Hazelnut, Dunkin Donuts, and Java Nation are the places to go! We carry cards in stock from Dunham's Sports, Gap/Old Navy/Banana Republic, Kohl's, Marshall's, Menards, Target, and Walmart for the perfect present for Mom. She will love you for it and you can support IC School at the same time. Happy Mother's Day to all our wonderful Moms!
